

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida

GEOCACHING CONTEST 2010

OFFICIAL CACHE QUESTIONS

We encourage you to print these questions and take with you while you explore the Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida. Then log back onto www.VisitNaturalNorthFlorida.com and complete the contest entry form which includes these 36 questions:

Always Aachua

<http://www.VisitGainesville.com>

Gainesville is where nature and culture meet as well those University of Florida Gators. Downtown Gainesville is vibrant district packed with stellar shopping, tasty restaurants and an urban nightlife. Awe-inspiring natural wonders such as the Devil's Millhopper, crystal clear springs, botanical and butterfly gardens, prairies and more await your exploration. Take a trip back in time and visit charming small towns such as Micanopy, Alachua, High Springs and the legendary Cross Creek made famous by writer Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in ALACHUA COUNTY:

1. Devil's Millhopper Geological State Park – How did this state park get its interesting name?
2. The Gainesville-Hawthorne Trail –Alachua Overlook – What 21,000-acre State Park runs adjacent to this 16-mile trail?
3. What is the name of the historic, two-story Bed & Breakfast located in downtown Micanopy?

Discover Dixie

<http://www.DixieCounty.org>

The descendants of the early settlers still tell of Indian life, Civil War days, reconstruction and other historic periods. Discover quaint fishing villages, hunting lands, swimming holes, bicycle and horseback trails dot the landscape for unlimited outdoor recreation.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in DIXIE COUNTY:

4. What is the name of the Fish Camp next door to the Anderson landing State River Camp?
5. Joe Anderson Park - What color is the swing set at Joe Anderson Park?
6. What is the background color of the Yellow Jacket Landing sign by the boat ramp?

Gadsden Getaway

<http://www.VisitGadsden.com>

The Gadsden County Tourist Development Council welcomes you. Just close your eyes and envision the comfort of a relaxing porch swing, the promise of a lakefront sunrise, the charm of shady sidewalk shopping, the smell of apple pies cooling on an open window sill—Welcome to Gadsden County.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in GADSDEN COUNTY:

7. What is the historic marker across the street at the Gadsden Courthouse?
8. What is the origin of the name of this theater site?
9. What is the historic building due west of the Gadsden Arts Center

Gilchrist Getdowns

<http://www.VisitGilchristCounty.com>

Visit the five fabulous springs of Gilchrist County—Hart, Fanning, Blue, Ginnie and Otter. Stop by and explore the historic small towns of Bell, Trenton, and Fanning Springs on your way to your next adventure to scenic trails for hiking, cycling, walking, jogging, bird watching and horseback riding.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in GILCHRIST COUNTY:

10. Gilchrist Chamber - What additional flag is hanging on the Veteran's Memorial Flag Pole?
11. What is the name of the historic building next door to the Suwannee Valley Quilt Shoppe?
12. Where did you find the geocache?

Hamilton Happenings

<http://www.HamiltonCountyFlorida.com>

Rivers, rivers, rivers! You are surrounded by the Withlacoochee River on the west and the beautiful Suwannee River to the east and south. In the middle of the county is the fascinating Alapaha River. Discover this rural area, rich in history, and loaded with real Southern charm.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in HAMILTON COUNTY:

13. Old Jail Museum/Hamilton County Historical Museum
14. McCully Farms
15. What Scout Troop did the Eagle Scout who constructed the foot bridge represent?

Jefferson Junt

<http://www.VisitJeffersonCountyFlorida.com>

Stretching from the Gulf of Mexico to the State of Georgia, Jefferson County is a small, quiet and relaxing community filled with history and archeological sites. Our ecological offerings are pristine rivers and streams, hunting and fishing preserves, vast woodlands and plantations. Canoeing, kayaking, bird-watching and horseback riding are popular pastimes.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in JEFFERSON COUNTY:

16. Name the lawyer whose office is across Pearl Street from the cache?
17. What is the name and nature of the business across the street from this site?
18. What other establishment that concerns animals is within one mile of this site?

Leisurely Lafayette

<http://www.LafayetteCountyChamber.com>

Lafayette County is home to many a swimming and diving hole. From the bank or in the water explore the Civil War-era steamboat Madison, scuttled in the spring run in 1863 to keep it from being captured. Stop by the small town of Mayo during Pioneer Days Festival and celebrate your pioneer spirit. Other area activities include hunting, fishing, and paddling. Area is spectacular for snorkeling and diving in North Florida's springs and rivers.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in LAFAYETTE COUNTY:

19. R.O. Ranch?
20. What kind of a building is the Geocache box in at Suwannee River Rendezvous?
21. What is stored on the sign by the Geocache at Troy Springs?

Leon Latitudes

<http://www.VisitTallahassee.com>

Florida's Capital County invites you experience the city where history is made every day. In addition to the capitol, the urban center of the Panhandle offers museums, dining, nightlife, festivals and sporting events for every interest. Visit Tallahassee, "where it all comes together."

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in LEON COUNTY:

22. What is the color of the John G. Riley House?
23. Who is the namesake of the café at Goodwood House and Gardens?
24. Whose car guards the entrance of the Tallahassee Automobile Museum?

Levy Living

<http://www.VisitNatureCoast.com>

If it's time outdoors you're craving, Levy County is the place to visit. Camping, hiking, wild life viewing, swimming and diving, boating, fishing and hunting abound. Antiques shopping and dining are found in delightful small towns.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in LEVY COUNTY:

25. What is the large (heavy) object is located right next to the geocache site at Fanning Springs State Park?
26. How many (live) palm trees are growing along-side the Island Hotel building where the cache site is located?
27. What is geocache jar sitting inside of at Withlacoochee Gulf Preserve?

Madison Magic

<http://www.MadisonFl.org>

The 50 landmarks of this historic district have replaced theme park thrills with tree-canopied roads, quaint gift shops, antique stores and down-home cooking. Madison County is an eco-tourist's paradise with an added focus on bicycling. "The Loop", a 135-mile trail offers challenging hills and breathtaking farmland while the county's rails to trails facilities and designated bike lanes make exploring by bike a leisurely trek.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in MADISON COUNTY:

28. On the west side of Grace Manor there is a white picket fence and next to the right side of this picket fence there is a lamp post. How many lights are there on this lamp post?
29. What are the names of the businesses to the left and right of Farmer's Cooperative?
30. At the entrance to Yogi Bear's Jellystone Park, there is a giant statue of Yogi Bear. What does he have raised up high into the air?

Taylor Travels

<http://www.TaylorFlorida.com>

"Share the Real Florida Adventure," a serene getaway in the natural beauty of coastal Florida. Whether your adventure is fishing hot spots, summer scalloping, or simply savoring some hospitality and relaxation; we hope you enjoy your visit to Taylor County.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in TAYLOR COUNTY:

31. What color is the gift shop at the Steinhatchee Site?
32. What kind of fence surrounds the Cracker Homestead at Forest Capital State Park?
33. What does it say above the door leading into the Keaton Beach Marina?

Wakulla Wonders

<http://www.VisitWakulla.com>

Discover the natural beauty of wondrous treasures found only in the unspoiled "other" Florida. Perhaps you'll find rare birds and animals along the banks of our many rivers or coastal marshes. Bike, hike, canoe or kayak your way to the St. Mark's Lighthouse, Wakulla Springs, Sopchoppy Worm Gruntin' Festival or the Wakulla Wildlife Festival.

Hidden Treasures of Natural North Florida in WAKULLA COUNTY:

34. What is the base of the park entrance sign made of?
35. Name the restaurant located across the street from the Wakulla Welcome Center in Panacea?
36. Name one animal shown on the Wakulla River City Park Entrance Sign?